OTERO BUSINESS LLC: Value-driven and results-focused

07/22/2024 Andre Lins

"Otero Business' unique approach helps clients define their current situation and find their future."

Otero Business LLC, based in Orlando, is a leading business consulting firm that stands out for its customized and innovative solutions.

The company was founded by Ricardo Alex Bruhn Otero, Bachelor of Laws from Centro Universitário Salesiano de São Paulo (UNISAL), graduated since 2010, with a Lato Sensu Postgraduate Degree in Tax Law from Universidade Anhanguera-Uniderp, since 2014 and currently, he is studying for a Master's degree in International Business at MUST University, located in Florida.

Services offered

The services offered by Otero Business LLC are:

Business Consulting: Development of strategies to optimize processes and increase profitability.

Financial Management: Financial analysis and planning to ensure the economic health of companies.

Digital Marketing: Implementation of effective campaigns to increase brand visibility and reach.

Training and Development: Training programs to improve team skills and competencies.

Competitive differentials

Otero Business LLC takes a business-focused, results-driven approach to enabling business strategies, optimizing operating models, and aligning transformations to select and implement appropriate technologies to achieve exceptional business results. Partnering with clients enables us to execute measurable change using proven methodologies that ensure profitability, scalability, and clarity.

Business resilience methodology

The company adopts a holistic management approach that identifies potential threats and their impacts on business operations, providing a framework for an effective response that protects the interests of stakeholders, the reputation and the brand of the organization.

The Enterprise Resilience Methodology focuses on ensuring the availability of business functions by focusing on resilience rather than risk, helping to define business continuity requirements, design and implement solutions, and continually improve capabilities.

Customer Testimonials

Clients praise the company for its expertise and dedication. " The partnership with Otero has transformed our business. The solutions presented were precise and effective, resulting in significant growth, " says Rafael Dias, CEO of the American company RMM Enterprise.
